

A fundraiser to benefit: Allan & Clover Sport Horses

"It takes a village" or so the saying goes, and it could not be more true than in eventing. Jennifer and Samantha are deeply grateful to the dear friends and family who are always there, to our great owners and sponsors, our trainers, vets and farriers to boot. And no one gets anywhere without the loyal support of a hardworking staff at home and on the road.

Every ride on every horse is about making both horse and rider better. Each ride, whether at home, with a coach or in competition, is about improving. Between rides there is a rigorous physical and mental training program. Jennifer and Sam are constantly working to improve their mental and physical sharpness in order to be at their best in competition.

How you can help us: Competing at the international level requires a significant amount of money. Jennifer and Sam work diligently at training and teaching at home, but the income generated from these endeavors is simply not enough to cover the cost of being competitive internationally. Your contribution, no matter how small, will make a difference.

On Sunday, March 18th we are having a raffle and a wine and cheese celebration to help raise funds for Sam & Jennifer's bid on the 2012 Fair Hill CCI  & CCI.

Raffle items — with more on the way — include:
